JAPS CAPTURE PORT ARTHUR HILLS AFTER DESPERATE

GAVE LIFE IN VAIN TO SAVE HIS BROTHER

Double Drowning Tragedy Near Providence Claims
Two Lives.

Special to the Boston American.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 7.—Brave to the Chinese Kelly, seven years old, sprung to the assistance of his older brother, who had fallen through thin ice on the mill pond, and manfully sacrificed his own life to save his brother's.

Matthew Kelly was eleven, and both boys were sons of Thomas Kelly, a blacksmith in this place. They were studying in the Chinese language and piano. They went to play on the pond near the plant of the Providence Manufacturing Company, the ice being thin. They had their feet and hands on the ice and started to the shore. Matthew ventured too far. There was a crackling of ice, and where he had been appeared a black spot of water, with only his head and arms to be seen. Kelly, seeing his brother in danger, sprang to his aid, and in the effort to save him, fell through the ice himself. The boys were rescued by the mill men, but Kelly's body was never recovered.

Matthew Kelly's brother had barely reached the shore when he broke, and both boys disappeared beneath it. The older would be rescued, but the younger was not. Kelly's body was found within five minutes.

It was still alive, but died soon after it was recovered. It was not recovered for more than two hours.

The scene when the stricken boys were borne to the family cottage was pathetic in the extreme. Mrs. Kelly was prostrate with grief and the father was nearly an overman.

GANG OF ROUGHS NEARLY KILL NAT BUTLER, THE CYCLIST

POLICE RUSH TO MADISON SQUARE GARDEN
AND QUELL RIOT OVER SIX-DAY RACE.

By Boston American's Leased Wire.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—With curses and yells a mob of members of the Paul Kelly gang broke into the dressing room of Nat Butler, one of the striking riders, today, and nearly beat him to death.

Riders and trainers due to the assistance of the cyclist, and to a few seconds a force of police was in progress.

The reserves of the East Twenty-second Street Police Station were summoned, and they arrived on the jump in a patrol wagon. The garden was thrown into an uproar as the shouts and the cries of fighters were heard.

BRIGHAM RICHES FOR HOSPITAL

Will Stand, and Fortune, Now
Between $3,000,000 and $4,-
000,000, Goes to Institution.

LONG LEGAL FIGHT ENDS

The contest to break the will of Peter Bent Brigham, was at its death in May, 1877, bequeathed his fortune, which has since grown to more than $3,000,000, for the building of a hospital, was ended today by a decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. In favor of maintaining the hospital fund and against the heirs at law.

The action to break the will was brought by Herbert F. Brigham, on behalf of the trustees, against the executors, against Lawrence H. H. Johnson, Edmund D. Colman, representing the executors, deceased, and the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, of which they are trustees. The executors named in the will were Robert Colman, who died in 1901, and Joseph Brady, also deceased.

The action was moved to the Circuit Court and appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals. The trustees in reply to the will alleged that they had turned over to the executors $1,000,000 and had received, in return, consulting the funds in their hands in 1902, and had used the same in various ways.

The court of appeals affirms the validity of the gift and declares the action of the heirs at law.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Dec. 7.—Eighty-seven of the teachers, has been elected superintendents of schools in Amesbury, N. H., of which, of Worcester, and Miss Louise T. Berry, of Amesbury, were elected teachers.

Russian Battleship Sunk in Harbor and Others Disabled By Plunging Fire From the Recently Captured Positions.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—After a terrific struggle, with appalling losses on both sides, the Japanese besiegers under General Nogi have driven the Russian defenders of Port Arthur from Akasaka Hill and two eminences to the north of the Russian main line of forts.

At 4 p. m., yesterday, following the terrible struggle, Russian bearers appeared, carrying a flag of truce. An armistice of five hours was arranged, during which both sides buried the dead and carried the wounded from the field of carnage.

Trains have received official reports of this action, together with the sinking of the battleship Poltava and the disabling of others in Port Arthur harbor and the placement of heavy artillery on 203 Meter Hill, which is believed to forecast the early fall of the stronghold.

GENERAL NOGI'S REPORT.
The following is the official report sent to the General Staff at Tokyo by General Nogi:

"Following to the plunging fire from 203 Meter Hill, the enemy has withdrawn from Akasaka Hill.

"On December 6 our forces occupied an entire fort at 1 p. m. Subsequently our forces, after disabling the enemy, occupied an eminence north of Akasaka Hill and continued on 5th Page, 4th Column.

REPUBLICANS WIN MOST OF 13 ELECTIONS

Eight Mayors of That Party,
Three Democrats and Two Independents.

TWO CHANGES IN LICENSE

MAYORS ELECTED.

Waltham... John L. Harvey, R.
Taunton... John H. Eldridge, R.
Springfield... F. W. Dickinson, R.
Quincy... James Thompson, R.
Pittsfield... Allen M. Bagg, R.
Northampton... T. M. Connor, D.
Brookton... Edward H. Keith, R.
Fitchburg... H. O. Sawyer, C.
Glooucester... G. E. McDonald, R.
Marlboro... Henry S. Parsons, R.
Haverhill... Russell L. Wood, R.
Lawrence... G. F. Lynch, D.
New Bedford... C. S. Ashley, D.

The results of the municipal elections in thirteen Massachusetts cities were generally favorable to the Republicans, although they lost one of their strongholds, Northampton. Eight mayors are elected Republicans, three Democrats, one was the candidate of a citizens' party and one of a new party.

After being tried for a year, the License and Control law was repealed by Brockton, Haverhill, New Bedford, Springfield and Taunton. Marlboro, for the second time, refused to adopt it, and Quincy voted to continue its operation one year.

Five Mayors Re-elected.

Five of the Mayors elected, Keith, of Brookton, Sawyer, of Fitchburg; Wood, of Haverhill; Lynch, of Lawrence; Ashley, of New Bedford; and Harvey, of Waltham, are at present in office. Mayor Ashley, of New Bedford, is now clearing his term in that city.

The city which will have Republican Mayors are Waltham, Springfield, Quincy, Spring Hill, Marlboro, Fitchburg, Taunton, and Lawrence. Brockton elected the city's first independent Mayor, and the Mayor of Taunton will be an Independent Republican.

Ashley Wins in New Bedford.

The old-time popularity of Mayor Charles S. Ashley, of New Bedford, his personality and his administration of the office of Mayor were made the object of fierce attack by Alderman Thomas Thompson in one of the most savage campaigns on record. Thompson was accused by Ashley of a number of crimes, and his reports were filled with attacks on the Mayor. Mayor Ashley was given 1,250 votes as against 1,000 for John E. O'Neil. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Wood Haverhill's Choice.

Bowen L. Wood, Haverhill, was re-elected Mayor of Haverhill by a plurality of 1,500 votes. The vote in favor of license was strong, and the vote of Haverhill will be solidly Republican.

Independents Get Taunton.

John H. Eldridge, the Independent Republican candidate, defeated Richard E. Turner, Democrat, in Taunton. The vote was 1,200 for Eldridge and 1,000 for Turner. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Marlboro for Parsons.

General Henry S. Parsons, Republican, was successful in the municipal campaign against Mayor Frederick H. S. Ashby, who was elected by the Independent Republican party. The vote was 1,200 for Parsons and 1,000 for Ashby. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Waltham Likes Harvey.

Mayor John L. Harvey, Republican, was re-elected in Waltham by a majority of 1,000 votes. The vote was 1,200 for Harvey and 1,000 for his opponent. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Thompson Wins in Quincy.

Peter T. Fallon, the Democratic candidate for mayor of Quincy, was defeated by James Thompson, Republican, by 1,000 votes. The vote was 1,200 for Thompson and 1,000 for Fallon. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Northampton Democratic.

The Board of Aldermen will be Democratic, and the Common Council will remain Republican. License provision by a majority of 1,000 votes. Connor will be the youngest mayor in the State.

Brockton Nearly for Socialists.

The plurality of Mayor Charles H. Keith, of Brockton, the Republican candidate, was only 100 votes. The vote was 1,200 for Keith and 1,100 for his opponent. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Glooucester Goes to McDonald.

George E. McDonald, Republican, defeated James H. Polman, Democrat, in Glooucester. The vote was 1,200 for McDonald and 1,000 for Polman. The city manager for license and regulation was elected by a large majority.

Pittsfield Chooses Bagg.

Allen H. Bagg, Republican, was elected Mayor of Pittsfield, over Senator William H. McCarthy, Democrat. Bagg's plurality was by a majority of 250. The city was changed from license to no license law.

BAY STATE MAN SEEKS WORLD OVER FOR WIFE

Tom Williamson of North Adams Has Been on Search Two Years.

HE WANTS HIS LITTLE GIRL

THE MOINES, Ia., Dec. 7.—Two years of wandering by sea and land in search of his wife and child is the record of Tom Williamson, of North Adams, Mass., who has been on a search for his wife and child for two years. Williamson came to Des Moines on information which led him to believe that they might be found here. Mr. Williamson, according to the story, was seen by a woman who was his wife when she left home. Mrs. Williamson said that she was still in Des Moines, but she was not sure. Williamson will remain a few days in Des Moines, but he hopes that he will find his wife and child. Williamson's determination to find his wife and child is a story of long love. "I want to see my wife and child," he said. "I want to see my little girl."

PRINCIPAL IN RAY HAMILTON FRAUD IS DEAD

Eva Ray Hamilton in Charity Hospital During Her Last Hours.

FAMOUS BY DECEPTION

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Eva Ray Hamilton, alleged to be the woman whose arrest was linked with the tragic death of Robert Hamilton, is dead. She died in charity ward in St. Vincent's Hospital. No funeral service was held, and her body was buried in a pauper's grave. She was famous by deception.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lillydale, N. Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W. C. T. U., tells how she recovered from a serious illness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can truly thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and I decided to try your Compound. I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of all my troubles. My family and relatives were naturally so gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, Box 105, Lillydale, N. Y.

Thousands upon thousands of women throughout this country are not only expressing such sentiments as the above to their friends, but are continually writing letters of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, until she has hundreds of thousands of letters from women in all classes of society who have been restored to health by her advice and medicine after all other means had failed.

Here is another letter which proves conclusively that there is no other medicine to equal Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with poor health for over seven years, not sick enough to stay in bed, and not well enough to enjoy life. I was continually writing letters of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, until she has hundreds of thousands of letters from women in all classes of society who have been restored to health by her advice and medicine after all other means had failed.

CARTOONIST TAD SHOWS KID MCCOY AND TWIN SULLIVAN READY FOR THEIR MUCH DELAYED FIGHT.

THEY COULD NOT WAIT FOR THE FIGHT, BUT THEY WERE READY TO GO TO THE FIGHT. THE FIGHT WAS DELAYED, BUT THEY WERE READY TO GO TO THE FIGHT. THE FIGHT WAS DELAYED, BUT THEY WERE READY TO GO TO THE FIGHT.

IN HARD LUCK SAYS TAD FOR HIS BOUT WITH THE FOXY

BY TAD.

Kid McCoy and Twin Sullivan were due to meet tonight in Los Angeles. But they won't fight. At least not before the first of the year.

All this because the news was flashed over the wire that the club building the fight management had its eye on what was being done for a church office.

This is the go that has been postponed so often. The managers of the Southern Club could not find out whether or not the fight was on, and the fight was postponed until yesterday, when they thought they had the Pavilion, and that the grand old warlike would get to and settle it.

They fought a hard twenty-round fight out there a few months ago, and McCoy was given the decision, although it was a pretty close one of that.

Neither of the gentlemen are what you would call all-arounders. Both have been in the ring for over seven years, and this time, when it really happens, will just show people who to go to look to the "I need to go" club. Sullivan has trained hard and faithfully for this go. He says, in the first fight, that McCoy's reputation had frightened a bit, and claims to be the real winner of the fight.

This time Sullivan goes McCoy's net, and it is his intention to wait right in, take what the Kid has and give back twice as much.

McCoy's friends are here, and the crowd that has been leading to see a fight is here. The fight is on, and the crowd is here. The fight is on, and the crowd is here.

BY W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Now that the excitement has cooled off and there has been ample time for a thorough interchange of confidence among the managers of the fight, the impression is crystallizing that "Young Corbett" is not a fighter at all. He is a man who can talk, but he cannot fight.
